

WATERSHED

ENVIRONMENTAL POETRY FESTIVAL
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1 • NOON TO 4PM • FREE TO THE PUBLIC
MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. CIVIC CENTER PARK IN BERKELEY

POETRY, MUSIC & ENVIRONMENTAL ACTIVISM

Robert Hass, U.S. Poet Laureate 1995-97, Poetry Flash, the Ecology Center/
Berkeley Farmers' Market, and Ecocity Builders invite you to celebrate writers, nature and community at the twelfth annual Watershed Environmental Poetry Festival.

RESERVE YOUR TABLE NOW!

River Village is an area for environmental and literary organizations to inform, educate and enlighten. River Village will also contain interactive nature and art activities designed to engage the public, including a fifty-foot poetry rubbing panel carved in the form of a river from storm-salvaged trees. In addition to grass roots environmental groups, literary presses, organizations, or magazines representing any aspect of the creative writing community or any literary subject matter are warmly welcome.

RIVER VILLAGE GUIDELINES

- The WATERSHED Festival is not a crafts fair. The sale of sweat-shirts, t-shirts, buttons, bumper stickers, books, magazines, and other literature as well as CDs is permitted. Soliciting donations for your organization is okay.
- When a group's fee is waived, that organization agrees to provide volunteer support to help us set up and close the festival. You will be contacted regarding the specific times.
- Your application fee helps us to offset costs, including: sanitation facilities, permits and fees, insurance, and security. Thank you.
- Please note: The Ecology Center Bookstore has an exclusive on books by the main featured readers.
