

WATERSHED

Watershed Environmental Poetry Festival

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2019 • NOON-4:30 PM • FREE TO THE PUBLIC

CIVIC CENTER PARK • MLK JR. WAY AT CENTER STREET • BERKELEY

"Stand up for the Earth with Poetry and Music!"

Robert Hass, U.S. Poet Laureate 1995-97, Poetry Flash, the Ecology Center/
Berkeley Farmers' Market, Moe's Books, 100 Thousand Poets for Change, and Pegasus Books Downtown invite you to celebrate writers, nature and community at the 24th Annual Watershed Environmental Poetry Festival.

RESERVE YOUR EXHIBIT SPACE, NOW

- River Village is an exhibit/table outreach area for poets, writers, and organizations to share their work. Environmental groups and creative writing or literary community organizations are warmly welcome!
- Exhibit spaces are located within the grass circle at Martin Luther King, Jr. Park, providing clear view (and sound) of stage performances and readings.
- Your application fee helps us to offset costs, including sanitation facilities, permits, rental fees, insurance, and security. Thank you.

RIVER VILLAGE GUIDELINES

- WATERSHED permits the sale of sweat-shirts, t-shirts, buttons, bumper stickers, books, magazines, and other literature as well as CDs and environmental art. Soliciting donations for your organization is fine.
- When a group's fee is waived, that organization agrees to provide volunteer support to help set up and close the festival.
- Festival Schedule Saturday, October 5, 2019:

• Strawberry Creek Walk	10:00 - 11:30 a.m.
• River Village set up (unload on Allston Way)	11:00 - 11:45 a.m.
• WATERSHED Festival main stage	Noon - 4:30 p.m.
• River Village take down	4:30 - 5:30 p.m.
